PER DEPUTERK

Criminal Case No.: 3:17-CR-00156-MEM
In the Court of the Honorable Malachy E. Mannion

Motion for CPAP

The defendant, Mark Komoroski, comes before the Court seeking an Order of the Court, praying the Court order the Defendant be allowed the use of a CPAP (continuous positive air pressure) machine while incarcerated.

The Court has ordered the defendant must self-surrender for imprisonment in federal prison. Often it takes many weeks or months for a federal prisoner to be granted the use of a CPAP machine by the Federal Bureau of Prisons. The defendant suffers from obstructive sleep apnea. Attached as an exhibit to this motion is a letter from the defendant's physician, Dr. Kozicki, M.D. In that letter, the defendant's medical doctor states that it is medically necessary for the defendant to sleep only with the aid of a CPAP machine, because he suffers from sleep apnea.

Therefore the defendant respectfully prays the Court order the Federal Bureau of Prisons to allow the defendant to have a CPAP machine while incarcerated.

Respectfully submitted by the defendant.
